Never Be Without A Tripod Again!

The SIRUI 3T-35 Kit is an ultra-compact, rugged, portable, flexible table top tripod...and much more. At only 9.5 inches closed, it can easily fit in a camera bag, backpack or back pocket. And the belt hook keeps it ready at any time!

The SIRUI 3T-35 is made of forged aircraft grade aluminum alloy, so it's rugged and built to last! Its large, stable support legs can hold digital and video cameras weighing up to 8.8 lbs. And the two-section center column can extend to 13.5 inches.

When you can't see over the crowd, extend the center column and fold down the support legs for added reach. Plus, you can turn the camera towards you to do a self-portrait, or get a different perspective - it couldn't be easier.

The legs fold up for storage and provide an excellent grip for shooting photos or videos.

The rugged, compact ball head comes with an Arca-compatible quick release plate and, when you remove the center column, can be placed directly onto the support legs for low angle shooting (just 4 inches off the ground) and maximum stability. Lean against a tree or put it on a ledge for unique perspectives.
